

***MEDIA ADVISORY*****

From the Office of Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz

August 5, 2002 For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Larry Perosino 860/509-6259

CEREMONY TO HONOR LOCAL VOLUNTEERS TUESDAY

Simmons and Courtney to participate in 2nd CD program

Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz is honoring Connecticut residents from the new 2nd Congressional District who have worked to improve life in their communities through volunteerism.

A Public Service Awards ceremony for over 500 recipients will be hosted by Bysiewicz on Tuesday, August 6, at 10:00 a.m. in Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts on the campus of the University of Connecticut in Storrs. Congressman Robert Simmons and former state representative Joe Courtney, both candidates for the 2nd Congressional District, are scheduled to attend the event.

WHAT: Secretary of the State's Public Service Awards For 2nd Congressional District

WHEN: Tuesday, August 6, 10:00 a.m.

WHERE: Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts, University of Connecticut Storrs, CT

ATTN. LOCAL EDITORS: Residents of the following towns will be honored during the August 6 Public Service Awards Ceremony.

CD 2: Ashford, Bolton, Canterbury, Chaplin, Chester, Colchester, Columbia, Coventry, Deep River, Durham, East Haddam, East Lyme, Enfield, Essex, Franklin, Griswold, City of Groton, Haddam, Hampton, Hebron, Killingworth, Lebanon, Ledyard, Madison, Mansfield, Marlborough, Montville, North Stonington, Norwich, Old Lyme, Old Saybrook, Plainfield, Preston, Putnam, Scotland, Somers, Sprague, Stafford, Suffield, Thompson,

Tolland, Union, Vernon, Waterford, Westbrook, Willington, Windham